The Pitmans’ Perspective:

“A legal matter is like a story. It has a beginning and an end. We believe behind every story there’s another story. One that goes deeper. A story that gets to the heart of the matter. A human story.”

Pitmans is the largest law firm in the Thames Valley, with offices in Reading and in the City of London. But it’s not size that has helped grow our reputation. Rather, it’s our personal approach. This and our dogged determination to get our clients the results they deserve. All the time, our campaigning, entrepreneurial spirit has and continues to attract the best and brightest people from the UK’s largest and most respected law firms.

With national expertise, regional leadership and the ability to deliver locally, we’ve been established now for over 150 years. But one thing we don’t do is live in the past. Not these days. Times, like the challenges our clients present us with, are always changing, so we do, too. Rated highly in the influential Legal 500 and Chambers guides to the legal profession, we continue to be industry award-winners. But winning the confidence of our clients is reward enough.

The world has changed. It’s got smaller. To keep ahead, we got bigger. We undertake a large volume of international work, in co-operation with other leading international firms throughout the world. Firms that think and act the same as we do. We are a founder of InterAct Europe, with formal ties with firms in Amsterdam, Antwerp, Belfast, Copenhagen, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Leipzig, Lisbon, Ljubljana, Munich, Nicosia, Paris, Porto, Rome and Zurich.

MAKING IT HUMANLY POSSIBLE

Making ourselves accessible to our clients is one thing. Having a menu of services and practitioners that can work closely together, at the drop of a hat, is another. Which is why having a community of like-minded lawyers not only keeps our people happy, it keeps our clients happy - when everything clicks seamlessly into action.
